100 DAYS CELEBRATION - K/1

On Monday the K/1 students celebrated their 100th day of school! The students celebrated by dressing up as if they were 100 years old, grey hair, glasses, walking frames and walking sticks filled the classroom. Students enjoyed games and activities thought the day all about the number 100.

Thank you to all the parents who contributed the yummy food .

Bring on the next 100!

LEO BARRY FOOTBALL DAY - 2/3/4

2/3/4 had a fantastic day in Deniliquin. The skill level of our students was incredible as they confidently shared the ball and scored goals. They displayed great sportsmanship and teamwork. WELL DONE 2/3/4

PRESENTERS

SALLY NEAVES is the Eco-Education Coordinator at Rahamin Ecology Centre, Bathurst NSW, an environmental education spirituality and advocacy ministry of the Institute of the Sisters of Mercy of Australia and Papua New Guinea. Her work involves designing Earth literacy programs and contemplative practices for reconnection with Earth and imaginative action for our times. Her background includes qualifications in ecological theology, philosophy, spirituality and permaculture.

MARGIE ABBOTT RSM is based in Geelong. With experiences in education, spirituality, theology, and counselling, as well as psychodrama, Margie values highly inner independence and capacity development. She integrates action methods, myth, creation centred spirituality and ritual to enhance her work. Through her private practice, "igniting sparks" she works extensively with school systems, leadership teams, retreats and eco spirituality.
